

European Union Law (International and European Law)

Many of today's challenges demand a response from EU law. As the most sophisticated international organization in the world the EU deals with issues like (mass) migration, climate change and cybercrime. This track of the Master's International and European Law provides you with a solid foundation in substantive and institutional EU Law.

ALP: Amsterdam Law Practice

The European Union Law (International and European Law) Master offers a tailor-made experiential education programme under the wing of the Amsterdam Law Practice (ALP).

The ALP courses this track offers, contain distinct “EU law in action” elements, that allow students to experience the law in an interactive form, such as moot courts, moot law-making, the one-on-one coaching of a member of staff in the completion of an individual research project.
