

Law & Finance

How can some banks and states become too big to fail? Why do companies need financial lawyers to produce self-driving cars? These are questions about the relevance of law for finance. Attending the LLM programme Law & Finance, you will learn to answer them, and why they matter to you both as an individual and as a member of society.

Employment prospects

This Master's programme offers one of the only LLM degrees in Law & Finance in the world. It fills a large demand for financial legal specialists. Our graduates work among others as:

Lawyers in the corporate/transactional and financial practices of law firms

Legal and compliance experts in the financial industry

In-house Legal Counsels

Legal and compliance officers for financial supervisory authorities

Consultants in positions requiring legal and financial knowledge in organisations such as think-tanks, accounting firms, proxy advisors, among others

Academic researchers in Law & Finance

ALP: Amsterdam Law Practice

The LLM Law & Finance offers a tailor-made experiential education programme which is part of the Amsterdam Law Practice (ALP).

By putting yourself in the shoes of a legal professional, during ALP courses, you will apply academic legal knowledge and learn valuable practical skills. Our ALP course Finance: Capital Structures and Corporate Reorganisation bridges the gap between society and the professional field of Law & Finance.
